CCT Newsletter
June 2004

Thanks to all for making our 2003-2004 season such a great success!! We had three wonderfully successful shows, including:

“The Dresser” October 2003

“Into the Woods” March 2004

And most recently:

“The Odd Couple” April/May 2004

The Odd Couple was a huge success, audiences loved it, the cast and crew had a ball, and it even made money!!! A special thank you to Patti O’Rourke and Jennifer Edge-Savage for waiting for the furniture to be picked-up ---- finally!!

More Good News...

“Bob’s Date”, CCT’s 2004 entry into the EMACT festival written by John Shanahan, and directed by Stacey Erikson was chosen First Runner Up at the festival. This means that the show will go to the Regional Festival to be held July 31, 2004 at St. Anselm’s College in Manchester, NH. This is a huge honor and we are immensely proud of the hard work of cast and crew. There were many nominations for awards, and wins included Stacey Erikson for Best Director, and Martha Sawyer for Costume Design. To see the entire list of nominations and awards, check out our website at:

www.curtaincallbraintree.org.

If you would like more information about EMACT you can check out their website at:

www.emact.org.

Please save the date of July 31, 2004 and plan a trip up to Manchester to cheer on the cast and crew!

And speaking of Bob's Date.....

MORE FUN:

The annual CCT Membership Banquet will be held Saturday, July 24th at the Young's home in Braintree. Come with something to share – the CCT Board will provide burgers and dogs, the Young's will provide beverages – you help with the rest! The fun will begin at 4:00pm, at 47 Robbie Road in Braintree. Please RSVP to Jennifer Edge-Savage at 781-335-9775 or email her at: jenniferedgesavage@comcast.net as soon as possible so we can plan appropriately. She plans on sending out Evites as well, so you can also respond there. Remember to bring your bathing suit! It will be a great party to celebrate a wonderful season - going and coming!

Theatre in the Middle

Theatre in the Middle, Curtain Call's premier summer "camp" is again sure to be a great success. Staff this summer includes Meg Young-Director, Stacey Erikson, and Jay Savage. The morning session will run from 9:00 – 12:00, the afternoon session from 1:00 – 4:00. The morning session has 10 participants already, and the afternoon is working up to the "magic 10" number. If you know a young person, age 11-14 who's interested in learning more about the Theater Arts and is available from June 29th through July 30th, Tuesday through Thursday, call Meg Young at 781-848-0058, or the Clubhouse at 781-356-5113.

TAH-DAH!!!

Announcing the TENTATIVE slate for the 2004-2005 season.....

Newsworthy Notes

Interested in producing a Summer Workshop at Curtain Call Theatre? Give us a call and let us hear your proposal! The Clubhouse number is 781-356-5113.

We're looking for a "few good Angels!" There are a number of small (or not so small) projects that could help Curtain Call stay current, and running smoothly. These include, but are not limited to:

- Extending the heater under the stage
- Lighting equipment upgrade
- New hot water heater
- An awning for the front door area
- Flat-room re-organization

If you, or someone you know would like to be an "Angel" and take on one of these projects – we'd love to hear from you! Leave a message at the Clubhouse.

Want to help-out, but not ready to take on a big project? We are also looking for a few members to join a sub-committee with Jon Young and Nicole Zanetti to brainstorm some revenue-raising ideas for Curtain Call. Join a great team, and help make a difference!! Call or email Jon (781-848-0058 or treasurer@curtaincallbraintree.org) or Nicole (781-335-6856 or business@curtaincallbraintree.org) – or leave a message at the Clubhouse.

The annual CCT Scholarship of $300 was awarded June 5, 2004 to Braintree High School Senior Marie Couthre. Congratulations to Marie!

And last but not least, a very heart-felt congratulations to Michael Pevzner and Carol Cybulska who were married on June 19, 2004! Mazel tov!!

If you have any news you would like to see in the Newsletter, email Sara Freedman at luvee@comcast.net.

Hope to see you at one or all of the great events planned for this summer and season!
